•	CLASSIFICATION SECRET
	CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY	REPORT
	information report	CD NO.	50X1-HUM
COUNTRY	East Germany/Poland	DATE DISTR. 9 Oct	nber 1953
SUBJECT	Civilian Prisoners Shipped to the U.S.S.R.	NO. OF PAGES 1
PLACE ACQUIRED		NO. OF ENCLS.	50X1-HU
DATE OF INFO.		SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.
•
			٠
_
ĺ.
	trains of boxcars, each of them loaded with appro	that two	ro ¤¤ 50X1-HU
	trains of boxcars, each of them loaded with approinternees, stopped at Posen railroad station on skylights and a 35-cm opening in the doors were spelish railroad men were prevented by the Soviet at the Germans eigarettes or water to drink. Both the east.	oximately 1,500 Germs 15 July 1953. The secured by barbed wir escort rersonnel from	n 50X1-HU
2	trains of boxcars, each of them loaded with approinternees, stopped at Posen railroad station on skylights and a 35-cm opening in the doors were spelish railroad men were prevented by the Soviet at the Germans cigarettes or water to drink. Both the east.	oximately 1,500 Germs 15 July 1953. The secured by barbed wir escort personnel from rains proceeded towar	n 50X1-HU e. giving d the
2	trains of boxcars, each of them loaded with approinternees, stopped at Posen railroad station on skylights and a 35-cm opening in the doors were a Polish railroad men were prevented by the Soviet the Germans cigarettes or water to drink. Both the east.	oximately 1,500 Germs 15 July 1953. The secured by barbed wir escort personnel from rains proceeded towar that 12 freight car enburg were observed were well dressed. Ra	e. giving d the sloaded bet50X1-HU
	trains of boxcars, each of them loaded with approinternees, stopped at Posen railroad station on skylights and a 35-cm opening in the doors were specially railroad men were prevented by the Soviet at the Germans digarettes or water to drink. Both the east. Learned with male German internees from Saxony and Brande Beuthen and Schomberg on 24 July. The men who wanted to approach the train were prevented in personnel.	oximately 1,500 Germs 15 July 1953. The secured by barbed wir escort personnel from rains proceeded towar that 12 freight car enburg were observed were well dressed. Ra from doing so by Mili	e. giving d the sloaded bet50X1-HU ilroad men tia 50X1-HU
2	trains of boxcars, each of them loaded with approinternees, stopped at Posen railroad station on skylights and a 35-cm opening in the doors were relish railroad men were prevented by the Soviet at the Germans cigarettes or water to drink. Both the east. Learned with male German internees from Saxony and Brando Eeuthen and Schomberg on 24 July. The men who wanted to approach the train were prevented in personnel. Learned [the German internees and bound for the USSR had been of Germans had called for water; however, armed escorany help to them. the shipment was on the way to the USSR had been in	oximately 1,500 Germs 15 July 1953. The secured by barbed wir escort personnel from rains proceeded towar that 12 freight car enburg were observed were well dressed. Ra from doing so by Mili mat a long train load observed in Posen. The rt personnel had prev	es giving d the sloaded bet50X1-HU ilroad men tia 50X1-HU led with 50X1-HU entea
	trains of boxcars, each of them loaded with approinternees, stopped at Posen railroad station on skylights and a 35-cm opening in the doors were relish railroad men were prevented by the Soviet at the Germans digarettes or water to drink. Both the east. Learned with male German internees from Saxony and Brando Beuthen and Schomberg on 24 July. The men who wanted to approach the train were prevented in personnel. Learned German internees and bound for the USSR had been of Germans had called for water; however, armed escon any help to them. the shipment was on the way to the USSR had been in which the train had passed.	oximately 1,500 Germs 15 July 1953. The secured by barbed wir escort personnel from rains proceeded towar that 12 freight car enburg were observed were well dressed. Ra from doing so by Mili nat a long train load observed in Posen. The t personnel had prev slips indicatin 'ound on the track ov	es giving d the sloaded bet50X1-HU led with 50X1-HU lented g that er
	trains of boxcars, each of them loaded with approinternees, stopped at Posen railroad station on skylights and a 35-cm opening in the doors were relish railroad men were prevented by the Soviet at the Germans cigarettes or water to drink. Both the east. Learned with male German internees from Saxony and Brando Eeuthen and Schomberg on 24 July. The men who wanted to approach the train were prevented in personnel. Learned [the German internees and bound for the USSR had been of Germans had called for water; however, armed escorany help to them. the shipment was on the way to the USSR had been in	oximately 1,500 Germs 15 July 1953. The secured by barbed wir escort personnel from rains proceeded towar that 12 freight car enburg were observed were well dressed. Ra from doing so by Mili nat a long train load observed in Posen. The track or slips indicatin found on the track or	e giving d the sloaded bet50X1-HU dilroad men tia 50X1-HU ented g that er 50X1-HU
	trains of boxcars, each of them loaded with approinternees, stopped at Posen railroad station on skylights and a 35-cm opening in the doors were relish railroad men were prevented by the Soviet at the Germans digarettes or water to drink. Both the east. Learned with male German internees from Saxony and Brando Eeuthen and Schomberg on 24 July. The men who wanted to approach the train were prevented in personnel. German internees and bound for the USSR had been of Germans had called for water; however, armed escon any help to them. the shipment was on the way to the USSR had been in which the train had passed. Comment. The Civilian prisoners referred to were men involved in the June 17 uprising. The results of the state of the shipment was on the way to the USSR had been in the shipment was on the way to the USSR had been	oximately 1,500 Germs 15 July 1953. The secured by barbed wir escort personnel from rains proceeded towar that 12 freight car enburg were observed were well dressed. Ra from doing so by Mili nat a long train load observed in Posen. The track or slips indicatin found on the track or	e giving d the sloaded bet50X1-HU dilroad men tia 50X1-HU ented g that er 50X1-HU
	trains of boxcars, each of them loaded with approinternees, stopped at Posen railroad station on skylights and a 35-cm opening in the doors were relish railroad men were prevented by the Soviet at the Germans digarettes or water to drink. Both the east. Learned with male German internees from Saxony and Brando Eeuthen and Schomberg on 24 July. The men who wanted to approach the train were prevented in personnel. German internees and bound for the USSR had been of Germans had called for water; however, armed escon any help to them. the shipment was on the way to the USSR had been in which the train had passed. Comment. The Civilian prisoners referred to were men involved in the June 17 uprising. The results of the state of the shipment was on the way to the USSR had been in the shipment was on the way to the USSR had been	oximately 1,500 Germs 15 July 1953. The secured by barbed wir escort personnel from rains proceeded towar that 12 freight car enburg were observed were well dressed. Ra from doing so by Mili nat a long train load observed in Posen. The track or slips indicatin found on the track or	e sloaded bet50X1-HU ilroad men tia 50X1-HU ented g that er 50X1-HU
	trains of boxcars, each of them loaded with approinternees, stopped at Posen railroad station on skylights and a 35-cm opening in the doors were relish railroad men were prevented by the Soviet at the Germans digarettes or water to drink. Both the east. Learned with male German internees from Saxony and Brando Eeuthen and Schomberg on 24 July. The men who wanted to approach the train were prevented in personnel. German internees and bound for the USSR had been of Germans had called for water; however, armed escon any help to them. the shipment was on the way to the USSR had been in which the train had passed. Comment. The Civilian prisoners referred to were men involved in the June 17 uprising. The results of the state of the shipment was on the way to the USSR had been in the shipment was on the way to the USSR had been	oximately 1,500 Germs 15 July 1953. The secured by barbed wir escort personnel from rains proceeded towar that 12 freight car enburg were observed were well dressed. Ra from doing so by Mili nat a long train load observed in Posen. The track or slips indicatin found on the track or	e giving d the sloaded bet50X1-HU dilroad men tia 50X1-HU ented g that er 50X1-HU
	trains of boxcars, each of them loaded with approinternees, stopped at Posen railroad station on skylights and a 35-cm opening in the doors were relish railroad men were prevented by the Soviet at the Germans digarettes or water to drink. Both the east. Learned with male German internees from Saxony and Brando Eeuthen and Schomberg on 24 July. The men who wanted to approach the train were prevented in personnel. German internees and bound for the USSR had been of Germans had called for water; however, armed escon any help to them. the shipment was on the way to the USSR had been in which the train had passed. Comment. The Civilian prisoners referred to were men involved in the June 17 uprising. The results of the state of the shipment was on the way to the USSR had been in the shipment was on the way to the USSR had been	oximately 1,500 Germs 15 July 1953. The secured by barbed wir escort personnel from rains proceeded towar that 12 freight car enburg were observed were well dressed. Ra from doing so by Mili nat a long train load observed in Posen. The track or slips indicatin found on the track or	e giving d the sloaded bet50X1-HU dilroad men tia 50X1-HU ented g that er 50X1-HU
	trains of boxcars, each of them loaded with approinternees, stopped at Posen railroad station on skylights and a 35-cm opening in the doors were relish railroad men were prevented by the Soviet at the Germans digarettes or water to drink. Both the east. Learned with male German internees from Saxony and Brando Eeuthen and Schomberg on 24 July. The men who wanted to approach the train were prevented in personnel. German internees and bound for the USSR had been of Germans had called for water; however, armed escon any help to them. the shipment was on the way to the USSR had been in which the train had passed. Comment. The Civilian prisoners referred to were men involved in the June 17 uprising. The results of the state of the shipment was on the way to the USSR had been in the shipment was on the way to the USSR had been	oximately 1,500 Germs 15 July 1953. The secured by barbed wir escort personnel from rains proceeded towar that 12 freight car enburg were observed were well dressed. Ra from doing so by Mili nat a long train load observed in Posen. The track or slips indicatin found on the track or	e giving d the sloaded bet50X1-HU dilroad men tia 50X1-HU ented g that er 50X1-HU
	trains of boxcars, each of them loaded with approinternees, stopped at Posen railroad station on skylights and a 35-cm opening in the doors were relish railroad men were prevented by the Soviet at the Germans digarettes or water to drink. Both the east. Learned with male German internees from Saxony and Brando Eeuthen and Schomberg on 24 July. The men who wanted to approach the train were prevented in personnel. German internees and bound for the USSR had been of Germans had called for water; however, armed escon any help to them. the shipment was on the way to the USSR had been in which the train had passed. Comment. The Civilian prisoners referred to were men involved in the June 17 uprising. The results of the state of the shipment was on the way to the USSR had been in the shipment was on the way to the USSR had been	oximately 1,500 Germs 15 July 1953. The secured by barbed wir escort personnel from rains proceeded towar that 12 freight car enburg were observed were well dressed. Ra from doing so by Mili nat a long train load observed in Posen. The track or slips indicatin found on the track or	e giving d the sloaded bet50X1-HU dilroad men tia 50X1-HU ented g that er 50X1-HU
	trains of boxcars, each of them loaded with approinternees, stopped at Posen railroad station on skylights and a 35-cm opening in the doors were relish railroad men were prevented by the Soviet at the Germans digarettes or water to drink. Both the east. Learned with male German internees from Saxony and Brando Eeuthen and Schomberg on 24 July. The men who wanted to approach the train were prevented in personnel. German internees and bound for the USSR had been of Germans had called for water; however, armed escon any help to them. the shipment was on the way to the USSR had been in which the train had passed. Comment. The Civilian prisoners referred to were men involved in the June 17 uprising. The results of the state of the shipment was on the way to the USSR had been in the shipment was on the way to the USSR had been	oximately 1,500 Germs 15 July 1953. The secured by barbed wir escort personnel from rains proceeded towar that 12 freight car enburg were observed were well dressed. Ra from doing so by Mili nat a long train load observed in Posen. The track or slips indicatin found on the track or	e giving d the sloaded bet50X1-HU e with e 50X1-HU ented g that er

50X1-HUM

